Where did you hear about our workshops?

By signing this application, I understand that this is a privilege extended by Sterling Creatives to attend our summer workshop(s). While attending workshops participants will be expected to follow our code of conduct.

1. Do not attempt to cause damage or steal property.
2. Do not attempt to cause physical injury to another person except in self-defense.
3. Violation of criminal law that has an immediate effect on the gallery or its members.
4. Weapons are not allowed, this includes knives
5. No smoking or tobacco use in the facility.
6. Violation of district or building regulations.
7. No Throwing objects that can cause bodily injury or damage property.
8. No directing profanity, vulgar language in any language (English, German, Spanish, etc.) or obscene gestures toward other students, gallery members or visitors.
9. No engaging in verbal abuse, i.e., name calling, ethnic, racial or gender slurs, or derogatory statements addressed publicly that precipitate disruption of the program or incite violence.
10. No engaging in bullying activities, defined as any verbal or written expression, physical act or gesture that is intended to cause distress upon one or more students.

I agree to be courteous and follow the above or I will be asked to leave and the cost of the class or classes will not be refunded. I will not hold Sterling Creatives liable for any accident or injury that occurs during a workshop.
